

Cleaners of Church Linens * Job Description

The Church Linen Ministers are responsible for making sure that all of the “church linens” used at the Mass are clean, pressed and in good condition. “Church Linens” include Purificators, Towels, Altar cloth, Corporals, and Albs. Ministers rotate these duties. It would be most desirable if each minister was “on duty” every 4 or 5 weeks. This ministry brings with it the gentle satisfaction of knowing that the beauty of the Mass will be maintained. This ministry is most appropriate for individuals who like to work behind the scenes. Training will be provided.

Requirements

- Follower of Jesus Christ
- Roman Catholic in good standing with the Church
- Regular participation in the life of the church
- Regular Mass attendance on Sundays/Holy Days
- Appreciation for the beauty and dignity of the Mass
