Yes, for some, Christmas is “over”, but as a Catholic community, Christmas does not end until January 7, 2018 – The Feast of the Epiphany. As I was looking through greetings from family and friends on Christmas evening, I read this gem from my nephew and would like to share it with you. . .

A wonderful sentiment as Christmas Day draws to it's close. At the end of the day, as we wash the last few dishes and turn off the Christmas lights, alone with our thoughts at last, we realize that everything is OK. In that moment, we blow out the last candle with a smile of gratitude for what's behind us and pull back the covers with a sense of hope for what's ahead. And we rest.

So I wish you all a Merry Christmas, look forward to a new year filled with many new memories, a Happy Epiphany and an end to the Christmas season on January 7th. The series on the Mass will resume next week. If you have questions on your faith or would like to learn something more about your faith, please drop your suggestions into the collection basket marked Back Page Editor. I have a great resource, Fr. Ray, and he will always make sure I am imparting true faith information.
