BUSY, BUSY, BUSY. . . We all have things that must get done every day. Other things that just need to be done eventually. But no matter what, we can make it through each of those busy times if we are mindful of God's presence in our lives. We can accomplish much when we let God into our lives. But with all the busyness that we have, it can be hard to include God. But it is possible. I am always looking for ways to make sure I include God in my life. I came across an article I'd like to share with you. In this article, the author gives 5 simple ways to slow down our lives and live a more peaceful and prayerful life where God is included daily.

1. Spend time in prayer in the morning. Yes, this can be hard, especially with cold winter days coming. No one wants to jump out of the warm bed, hit the cold floor and be happy. But if we start the day with a prayer or spiritual reading, we can be more peaceful, more patient with others, and more aware of God's presence throughout the day.

2. Say a Hail Mary before beginning work. This may sound trivial, but if we can make a habit of saying a Hail Mary before you do anything else, you are asking Our Lady to bless our day and guide our priorities. If you do this, you may find your work day less stressful and hurried.

3. Say the Angelus. You may have heard this prayer at some time in your life. But if you haven't try looking it up. It is a prayer that reminds us of the miracle of the incarnation. Typically, it is said at noon, so you might try praying it before you have your lunch.

4. Pray the Rosary. This is one of the most popular and well known Catholic prayers. If we pray it daily, with concentration and devotion, it becomes one of our best prayers. Consider praying the rosary after dinner — as a way to spend some family time and including everyone. Or you might try praying it while you are driving your car on the way to or from work. There are other times to pray the rosary, find the time that best fits your life.

5. Examine your conscience before bed. Let's face it, we all do things at some time during the day that may be displeasing to God. So we should pause before going to bed and think about those times. Then, remember that Jesus was crucified for us. So tell him you are sorry for your failings, will try to do better, and then pray an act of contrition.

It's easy to get distracted and forget about God throughout the day. But reminding ourselves of God's presence with daily prayer will help us get through each of our busy days! These are only suggestions—they may not work for you, but try to do something in different parts of the day to remind yourself of God and how He is the best part of your BUSY life!

SUCCESS! Last Monday night, the Holy Family Movie Theater showed the movie: "I Can Only Imagine". Everyone who attended gave the movie 2 THUMBS UP! If you missed seeing this movie, you are encouraged to rent it and view it at your home. Our movie for December will be "The Case for Christ". Watch the bulletin for more info on this movie!

CAMPAIGN FOR HUMAN DEVELOPMENT

Next weekend: November 17 & 18
This collection supports programs to help the over 46 million people in the United States that live in poverty.

GIVING TREE

The Faith Formation students will be putting up the Annual Giving Tree. There will be a couple of changes to the tree. We will not have envelopes for money donations to the Ovid Christmas Basket—instead, you are asked to take a gift tag off the tree. The tags include items like clothing, paper products, bedding and more. If you would like to make a monetary contribution instead, that would be greatly appreciated by the Ovid Lions Club. You can earmark you donation specifically for vouchers from the Village Food Pride for groceries, Applebee's for gas or as needed for items to complete the baskets. Please make the donation via checks made out to "Ovid Lions Club". They will then be sent to the Lions.

CHRISTMAS CARD-MAKING BUFFET

St. Isidore WINGS (Women In God's Service) will host a women's gathering Thurs., Nov. 15 at 7:00 PM in the Large Hall. All ladies of Holy Family are invited to attend. Please bring 2 store bought Friendship cards to be given to a shut-in and $2 for materials and embellishments to make 4 handmade Christmas cards. Melissa Nickols will present the program. Refreshments will be served.
