

DO THIS IN REMEMBRANCE OF ME

June 23, 2019 • The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

We are familiar with the instructions that Jesus gives his disciples at the Last Supper. But what exactly is it that we are to do in remembrance of Jesus? One answer focuses on the “institution narrative” found in the Eucharistic Prayers: we are to consecrate the bread and wine, changing them, by the power of the Holy Spirit, into the Body and Blood of Christ. This is true; but let’s think about what it takes to actually do this, as the Church has done for almost two thousand years:

- We are to remember Jesus—to remember Jesus, the Word of God in human form. To do this, we need that other word of God, given in a different form: the words of the scriptures.
- We need to assemble to do this. The Last Supper is a communal meal with Jesus. In his letter to the Corinthians, Paul describes actions done within a group, actions that began with that communal meal with Jesus. We gather as today’s disciples and continue that group activity in our assemblies.
- We need to find a way to assemble with some degree of order. We need leaders. We need preachers to preach the Word, we need presiders to repeat the actions of Jesus, persons who are “ordered”—ordained—for preaching and for the consecration of the bread and wine.

CHURCH, EUCHARIST, AND THOSE IN NEED

There is a saying: “The Church makes the Eucharist, and the Eucharist makes the Church.” In the Eucharistic celebration, we find Christ truly present in the consecrated bread and wine. We also find him in the assembly, the scriptures, and the preacher-presider—everything we do to “do this,” and in doing “this,” we become the Body of Christ. Our Eucharistic remembrance of Jesus is a living sacramental memory that transforms us, too. We receive Communion to live in communion with Christ and one another, to become the “real presence” of Christ in the world. We do what the disciples did: we feed those in need with the love and compassion with which Christ feeds us.

St. Isidore's Garden—Featured Plant:

Kousa Dogwood is an excellent small specimen tree. Two outstanding characteristics are the four-petaled, white flowers that appear above the foliage in June and reddish-purple fall color. This tree has been putting on a nice show this year beside the St. Isidore bell tower.

Change is happening in the Gardens. We are in process of removing our decorative grasses we've enjoyed for years. Anyone wishing to have starts from them, please feel free to call Aloise.

BLESSING OF THE QUILTS

This weekend is the blessing of the quilts. St. Isidore & Holy Family Quilting Ministry makes comfort quilts to distribute to the sick, homebound, or people with serious health issues. Before distribution the quilts are blessed by Fr. Bob or Fr. Ray. The Quilting group meets Thursdays at 9 AM at Holy Family. Volunteers are always welcome. All supplies are provided and being able to sew is not a requirement.

Notes from Fr. Bob Bacik

Scam Alert: It has come to our attention recently that someone has been sending text messages in my name asking for money from our parishioners. It appears that they are getting phone numbers from our online bulletin. I have heard of similar scams happening through various social media platforms, phone and email. These scams typically involve someone requesting emergency funds through gift cards or electronic transfer. If you ever receive a suspicious request from myself or anyone officially associated with the church or diocese, please let the parish office know immediately.

Canada Pilgrimage: This year I will be the chaplain on the annual “St. Joseph Pilgrimage” to the shrines of eastern Canada in Quebec. Highlights include St. Joseph Oratory of Mount Royal, Basilica of Our Lady of the Cape, the Basilica of St. Anne de Beaupre and the city of Quebec. Pilgrims from our area have been traveling this journey for several generations. Join me this summer, August 5-9: $600 per person, double occupancy includes 5 days and 4 nights. For information or reservations please call Kaye, Passport or enhanced license is mandatory for land travel.

Have a blessed week!
