Notes from Fr. Anthony

Well, we have survived another lent. It is hard to believe that Easter is already here. In spite of the psychotic weather of Michigan, we see longer days, slightly warmer temperatures and the flowers and trees starting to blossom and grow. We hear the birds in the trees singing their beautiful spring hymns, thanking their creator in their own simple way for the beauty around them and His ever present care. We all have much to be thankful to our good God for and in particular for His Son and the great sacrifice that Christ made for us through His passion, death and resurrection. Into the darkness and slavery of sin, the light has come to proclaim freedom to us, the captives. He stood face to face with the death and the devil and won for us the glorious victory that we are all invited to participate in, provided we follow Him through the passion and up calvary, we also will find ourselves with an empty tomb in the glorious resurrection. This is what we suffer and sacrifice for, to be given that peace and joy and life everlasting that no one but God can give. Let us rejoice in the great love of God during this Easter season. Happy Easter to all of you! May the joy of our calling by Christ to that glorious eternity with Him bring you all peace and comfort and hope throughout the year.

I would like to thank you all for your generous support of the DSA, I am very grateful for your sacrifices and support for this program. I am more than proud of the effort our parishes put forth and please know that I am humbled and honored to be here with you. I would like to thank all of those who helped prepare for our Triduum celebrations at the parish: our musicians, decorators, helpers, those who donated toward the flowers and all of you who celebrated these beautiful days with us in the liturgy. It would definitely not be the same without your offering of your time and talent.

Lastly, by way of reminder, next Sunday is Divine Mercy Sunday and we will have special Divine Mercy devotions to celebrate that beautiful day. We will be gathering at St. Isidore again this year with adoration of the Blessed Sacrament starting at 2:00 with opportunities for confession in that time to make it more possible to attain the plenary indulgence that is offered on that day and then the Divine Mercy Chaplet at 3 followed by benediction. Please join us if you can. It is a day when we beg for the mercy of God for ourselves and also for our families, and country. A day when we bring to the fountain of mercy those souls we know that have drifted from God. We can in a special way intercede for them and ask the good Savior to open their hearts to accept His love and mercy.

Happy Easter, Fr. Anthony

GRATITUDE CORNER

The beauty of the Mass is based on the efforts of so many people. Fr. Anthony and Dcn. John have a lot of responsibilities for that, but we are so grateful to all the people who help them out with the day-to-day aspects of having a consistently beautiful Mass. Some things require special talents that not all may have, but cleaning the linens is one task that most anyone can do that helps to relieve some of the burden and keeps the altars space looking pristine and white. We have wonderful helpers who take care of it all from the altar servers' albs and the altar cloths to the towels, corporals and purificators that are changed out every week. We are so appreciative of the extra efforts of these volunteers.

If this is something you think you could do, we encourage you to start small. It doesn't have to be every week since the volunteers rotate, but you can do the smaller items on your own schedule during the week and bring them back when you come to Mass the next weekend. If you would be willing to help out, please contact Sue Ladisky at Holy Family or Stacy Voisinnet at St. Isidore, or you can call the office. Thank you to all who have served and continue to serve in this simple yet important ministry. We really do have a wonderful parish family !
